2. Preserve me from my calling's snare
 And hide my simple heart above
 Above the thorns of choking care
 The gilded baits of worldly love
 In your name I go
 You may I set at my right hand, whose eyes my inmost being know,
 and labour on at your command,
 and offer all my works to you.
 In your name I go

3. Give me to bear your burden light, and every moment watch and pray,
 and things eternal keep in sight,
 and hasten to your glorious day.
 In your name I go
 For you delightfully employ whatever bounteous grace has given;
 and run my course with steady joy,
 and closely walk with you to heaven.
 In your name I go
