2. Preserve me from my calling's snare,
 And hide my simple heart above.
 Above the thorns of choking care
 The gilded baits of worldly love;
 In Your name I go, Lord.
 You may I set at my right hand,
 Whose eyes my inmost being know,
 And labour on at Your command,
 And offer all my works to You;
 In Your name I go.

3. Give me to bear your burden light,
 And every moment watch and pray,
 And things eternal keep in sight,
 And hasten to Your glorious day;
 In Your name I go, Lord.
 For You delightfully employ
 Whatever bounteous grace has given;
 And run my course with steady joy,
 And closely walk with You to heaven;
 In Your name I go.
