

From where the sun rises

Graham Kendrick

Verse

1. From where the sun ri-ses ev-en to the place it goes down, fa-ces, look-ing at the One we all love;

we're giv-ing you — praise, giv-ing you —
we're giv-ing you — praise, giv-ing you —

— praise. From sun - kissed is-lands,
— praise. All col-ours and ra - ces and ev-en where the cold wind blows, } we're giv-ing you — join-ing with the an-gels a - bove; }

(v.2)

Em A D Fine

- praise, giv-ing you — praise.

Verse A

Ev - en in the night when the sun goes down we're giv - ing you praise. Pas-sing it a-long as the world goes round we're giv-ing you praise.

D A

G D A

2. We're lift - ing our