

How much do you think you are worth?

Graham Kendrick

With feeling

G<sup>7</sup> C E<sup>7</sup>/G#

1. Is a rich man worth more than a poor man? Is a

Am F Bdim<sup>7</sup>

stran-ger worth less than a friend? Is a ba-by worth more than an old man? Your be-gin-ning worth more than your end? Is a pre-si-dent worth more than his as-sas-sin? Does your

C#dim<sup>7</sup> F/C G

C E<sup>7</sup>/G#

Am F Bdim<sup>7</sup>

va-lue de-crease with your crime? Like when Christ took the place of Bar-

1, 2.

Chorus

C#dim7 F/C G

ab - bas would you say he was wast-ing his time? Well, how much do you think you are worth, boy? Will a - ny - one stand up and

F C Am Dm

G F G C Am

say? Would you say that a man is worth no - thing un - til 3.

F G G

some-one is will-ing to pay? 2. I sup - spear. Would you say you are worth what it cost him? You say 'no,' but the price stays the same. If it don't make you cry, laugh it off, pass him by, but just re -

Abdim7 Am F

G F Fmaj7

F<sup>6</sup> Fmaj7

mem - ber the day when you throw it a - way, that he

F G C Em F C

paid what he thought you were worth. How much do you think he is worth, boy? Will a - ny - one stand up and

F C Am Dm

G F G C Am

say? Tell me, what are you will - ing to give him in re - turn for the price that he paid?

F G F G

C Am F rit. G C

2. I suppose that you think you matter
Well, how much do you matter to whom?
It's much easier at night when with friends and bright lights
Than much later alone in your room
Do you think they'll miss one in a billion
When you finish this old human race?
Does it really make much of a difference
When your friends have forgotten your face?

3. If you heard that your life had been valued
That a price had been paid on the nail
Would you ask what was traded,
How much and who paid it
Who was He and what was His name?
If you heard that His name was called Jesus
Would you say that the price was too dear?
Held to the cross not by nails but by love
It was you broke His heart, not the spear!

Would you say you are worth what it cost Him?
You say 'no', but the price stays the same.
If it don't make you cry, laugh it off, pass Him by,
But just remember the day when you throw it away
That He paid what He thought you were worth.

*How much do you think He is worth, boy?
Will anyone stand up and say?
Tell me, what are you willing to give Him
In return for the price that He paid?*